ELLEN ROSENTHAL IS APPOINTED DEPUTY REGIONAL ATTORNEY IN NLRB'S DETROIT, MI REGIONAL OFFICE

National Labor Relations Board's General Counsel Ronald Meisburg today announced the appointment of Ellen Rosenthal as Deputy Regional Attorney in the Agency's Regional Office in Detroit, MI (Region 7). A career NLRB attorney, Ms. Rosenthal had been serving as a Supervisory Attorney in that office.

In her new position, Ms. Rosenthal will assist Regional Director Stephen Glasser in the enforcement and administration of the National Labor Relations Act in Region 7, which services the four eastern-most counties in the upper peninsula and the entire lower peninsula of Michigan.

In enforcing the National Labor Relations Act, the NLRB conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation and investigates, prosecutes and remedies unfair labor practices committed by employers and unions.

In announcing the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg stated:

Ms. Rosenthal has distinguished herself as an extremely able investigator, litigator and supervisor and has earned the respect of her colleagues and the practitioners and parties who appear before the Agency. Her promotion helps ensure that the high quality work of the Detroit Regional Office will continue.

Ms. Rosenthal began her career with the NLRB in 1976 as a Field Attorney in the Detroit Office. In 2003, she was promoted to the Supervisory Attorney position.

A native of New York City, Ms. Rosenthal received a B.S. degree from the Cornell University School of Industrial and Labor Relations in 1973. She received her J.D. degree from the University of Michigan Law School in 1976.
